SESSION SUMMARY

SOLO MISSION: 04 FEB 88

COORD: 174301//868853

SUBJECT: Document

The document is located within a tall, square/rectangular building that is grey and light-blue in color. There are many structures in the area, but I still perceive green grass, trees, and a body of water nearby. There seems to be a CIA connection with this building, either overtly, or covertly

The essence of this document has something to do with waves and motion. There is a key object that is round and concavely conical. This object is coated with a very fine, sparkley, black, gritty substance. Concepts associated with this object are; sound, waves, frequency, acoustics, and amplification (AOL-like conical speakers).

The key person associated with this document is a rather young-looking, somewhat middle-aged man. I can picture him wearing a bulky, white turtle-neck sweater and smoking a pipe. He is light-skinned with brown hair and has a European look about him. He has an academic background (AOL-like a teacher or professor) and speaks English with an accent. This individual is well-mannered, relaxed, confident, friendly, and I get the impression that he could be quite a "ladies man". He does have a tendency to be somewhat overconfident and conceited at times, but, all-in-all he's still a rather likeable chap.
